GERMANS RETIRING ON ALL FRONTS

British Take 10,000 Prisoners This Morning—Lens Falls—French Continue to Push Forward—Present Indications Are That Germans Will Not Attempt to Hold Hindenburg Line

London, Sept. 3.—The British have captured Lens and the city was evacuated by the Germans without any resistance.

The famous Drocourt-Quenast switch line has been captured and at this point the British have penetrated a distance of four miles on a twenty-mile front.

A total of 10,000 prisoners had been counted this morning and more are coming in. The enemy has not exacted heavily.

The capture of Drocourt leaves the British in undisturbed control of Quenast. General Haig praises the Canadians for their splendid assistance to the British. The enemy is retiring along the entire front.

On a front virtually fifty miles from just below Ypres to a point near Peronne on the Somme, the German army are retreating. The retreat has been forced by the series of unrelenting hammer blows inflicted by Marshal Foch in the past six or seven weeks. It has now been accelerated by the notable victory won by Field Marshal Haig yesterday in breaking through the strong defensive line protecting the railway centers of Donk and Combles, and threatening to outflank even the main Hindenburg line south of St. Quentin. Already the capture of ten thousand prisoners by the British is reported. The German casualties in killed and wounded are declared to have been notably heavy, as their thickly massed forces met the force of the British blow. So pronounced and speedy is the advance that it seems as if the Germans, if they had not met with a disaster, are on the verge of one. The retreat which had been proceeding somewhat leisurely both north and south of the Somme, has been markedly accentuated north of that river. In this movement the important French coal-mining city of Lens, against which the British pounded vainly virtually all last year, has been evacuated, the British moving in. To the north in Flanders the battle is continuing, and the British have closed up the Lys salient by taking possession of the village of Wulverghem, two miles south of Kemmel.

TROUBLE CERTAIN TO FOLLOW

(By Associated Press)

Paris, Sept. 3 (Havre Agency).—A dispatch from Berne, Switzerland, to Le Matin, quotes a prominent Swiss citizen coming from Germany as declaring that in the past six weeks a formidable dissolution has swept over Germany. If the German military situation does not improve, trouble that may surpass the acts of the Bolsheviks in Russia menaces the German Empire.

DISASTROUS MONTH FOR COTTON CROP

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 3.—August was the most disastrous month to the cotton crop that has ever been recorded. A loss of prospective production amounting to 2,482,000 bales resulting from the severe drought is reported. The Department of Agriculture today forecast the crop at 11,137,000, an equivalent of five hundred percent deficit. The Department bases its estimate on a computation made August 25.

KEENE EYES TO SEE A PERISCOPE

(By Associated Press)

An Irish Port, Sept. 3.—If the popular conception of the periscope and the manner in which it is brought to the surface and lowered, were accurate, chasing submarines would be a much easier task than American destroyer commanders have laid out for them. They do not see a pipe four or five inches in diameter, with lenses at the top swishing through the water or disappearing during the rather slow process of submerging a U-boat.

Instead they see, if they are fortunate enough, a slender pipe not more than one and one half inches in diameter shoot up above the surface and disappear within a few seconds. It is the telescopic periscope that may be operated from a depth of several feet. All under-water craft now are equipped with them rather than the old type which, through photographs and drawings, has been impressed upon many people.

The operation of the periscope is controlled to a large extent by a very delicate instrument which denotes to the U-boat commander the condition of the sea at his surface. If it is comparatively smooth which enhances the danger of detection he need raise the periscope only a few inches above the surface. If it is rough he must raise the "eye" higher, but he really is in not as great danger as if the water was calm because it is difficult for an observer on another ship to see the small instrument in a heavy sea.

The instrument is controlled by water pressure which varies with the height and violence of the waves and shows actual surface conditions on an indicator in the ship.

In one successful fight with a U-boat it was estimated that the periscope was visible less than ten seconds. It came up very close to a destroyer, doubtless a great deal closer than the submarine commander had reckoned, and when he realized his peril he attempted to scurry away. But a depth charge was dropped and German submarine power decreased by one boat.

The parade formed shortly after 4 o'clock on the playgrounds, but owing to the fact that some of the units on which some of the bands came were late, the parade did not get under way until 10:30.

BIG LABOR DAY PARADE

Men in Neat Uniforms and Bands Viewed by Thousands—Affair a Success in Every Way

Labor Day, the one great day in the year set aside for the laboring man, was well observed in this city, and it was a very general holiday. Only work that was absolutely essential was carried on, even at the navy yard, the shipyards or other industries.

The big event was the parade of the labor unions in the forenoon and it was in every way a great success and a splendid parade.

Practically all of the unions were represented and there was sufficient music, five excellent bands being in the line, along with floats. The parade was witnessed by thousands of people, the line of march being crowded while from thousands of automobiles others saw the men parade. There was no attempt made to decorate other than the reviewing stand on Pleasant street from where the parade passed in review before the Mayor, members of the Council and the Labor officials including State President Richard A. Cooney, Naval Constructor H. P. Schluhbach and Commander H. L. Wyman, U. S. N.

The parade formed shortly after 4 o'clock on the playgrounds, but owing to the fact that some of the units on which some of the bands came were late, the parade did not get under way until 10:30.

Chief Marshal, E. S. F. Pickering; Aide, S. A. Boston, W. D. Woodward, Clarence Chick, Joseph St. Onge; automobile containing President Richard A. Cooney of the N. H. State Federation and other state officers; The Verhill City band, Bolter makers' union, Cornelius Driscoll president, with float; Lurvey's Lyman-Cadet band, Lucal St. Patricks' union, with float, "Work or Fight," president, George L. Hersey; Woodworkers' local, William J. Keefe, president; Metal Polishers' local, Peter Henry, president; Moulders' union, Charles Royce, president.

Portsmouth City band; Carpenter and Joiners' union, Mack Potter, president; Brick Masons and Plasterers' union, Had. Carriers' union, Coopers' local, William A. A. Cullen; Two Roofs, Atlantic Corporation band, Carpenters and Joiners' union, President Artie Schurman; Plumbers and Steamfitters' local, Robert M. Herick, president; Moley's Five and Drum band, Electrical Workers' local, Nicholas Schauschleff, president; Ranger lodge, International Association of Machinists, William H. Noyes, president; James Davidson, banner bearer; female operatives in autos and floats; Amalgamated steel workers.

Practically all of the marching men were in uniform of some sort, and they all looked neat and they marched with a fine swing.

The parade moved over the following streets: From the playgrounds to Pleasant street, to Market, to Dear, to Bridge, to Islington, to Bartlett, where it counter-marched to Cabot street, through Cabot to Middle, to Congress to Pleasant street, to the playgrounds where the parade was dismissed.

In the evening there was a band concert from 7 to 9 on Market square by the Portsmouth City Band, this being through the courtesy of the Central Labor Union, and it was appreciated by many thousand people.

During the concert, Miss Florence Wadley delivered an address on "Women in Industry" from the band stand, and her talk was closely followed by the crowd.

The following was the concert program: March, "Volunteers"; Sousa Overture, "Jolly Robbers"; Supper Grand Selection, "The Fighting Allies"; Lake.

HOW ABOUT ROOMS AND HOUSES

Shipyard, Newington, August 30.

The Portsmouth Herald:

After listening to the interesting remarks of Mr. Schwab and Mr. Pico, I wondered if these gentlemen fully appreciate what some of the workmen are up against.

Many of the laborers with families have come here and worked during the summer, camping, tenting and getting along any way possible to avoid danger of disease to themselves and families. This has gone on fairly well for the summer, but what will they do this winter?

Your city and Dover you are aware are crowded to the limit. Places further away are but little better I am told.

While many of us are willing to sacrifice much ourselves, personally, we cannot think of allowing little children and the women suffer. To get through an extremely cold winter as was last year without proper heat and food would doubtless mean much sickness.

As the days grow shorter and the nights cooler we cannot but think of what must certainly come. But we as a body of workmen have got a feeling that we are in the right when we demand protection for our families. And if we can't get it here we must go elsewhere.

I came here to do all I could to assist in the great demands of the country at war. Not being physically able to go to the front, I did what I know was next best. Now the school will soon call my children and I have not much to choose from.

MANY PRESCRIPTIONS AT THIS SEASON

In order to comprise the best course of treatment, and to secure the best results, should read as follows:

1. Hood's Sarsaparilla—11 oz.

2. Papillon—180 pills

3. One teaspoonful Hood's Sarsaparilla before meals.

Two Papillon after meals.

There is no better course of medicine for impure blood, run-down condition and loss of appetite. These two medicines working together often give a four-fold benefit.

In five months been able to find a home for them to live in during cold weather, and wages won't permit board and running a house elsewhere. My case is but one of many similar and as I repeat, "do these members of the Emergency Fleet fully appreciate what many of us are up against?" God knows we want to bring the old "Yellow Dolly" Kaiser to his last hitching place, which I would suggest 1000 feet from the ground at the loose end of a rope fastened solid at its other end to an airplane travelling not less than three miles a minute.

DELIGHTFUL TIME AT CHILDREN'S HOME

"Once Upon a Time" Presented to Large Gathering.

A social event of pleasant interest was given on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Children's Home for Children on Middle road for the benefit of that worthy institution and the affair proved a complete success.

The principal event of the afternoon was the pantomime "Once Upon a Time," by nearly 50 young people, under the direction of Miss Mary Seagraves Heffenger, its presentation being received with generous applause.

Those taking part were members of the Girls' Glee Club and also a dozen of more young people under the age of twelve, these being members of Miss Heffenger's dancing class.

The dances were as follows: Echo and Narcissus; the Playground of the Sky; Enchanted Forest; Diana Goes Hunting.

The participants were daintily draped costumes and executed the dances with grace and skill that was most creditable. Miss Foley, Clough read the story as the dances were presented.

At the conclusion of the pantomime Miss Heffenger received many congratulations for the fine presentation, as she not only wrote the story and dances, but designed and executed the costumes.

Miss Frances Stone, who had charge of the rehearsals during the illness of Miss Heffenger, was stage manager, and Miss Helen Livingston arranged the scenes. Misses Katherine Thaxter and Priscilla Heffenger artistically arranged the costumes on the young misses.

The entertainment was given at 4 o'clock and at its close the visitors enjoyed pleasant sociability, both indoors and out.

Flowers, ice cream and Russian tea were offered for sale and the tables were well patronized.

The opportunity to inspect the spacious new home was taken advantage of by many and the patron, Miss Tuttle, and assistant, Miss Moore, greeted the visitors most cordially and took pleasure in showing them about, as also did members of the board of managers present. Everything looked as neat as possible and the order and fine condition of the institution was a matter of favorable comment.

The little folks at the home were in evidence everywhere and thoroughly enjoyed the gathering. About $125 will be cleared from the affair and the amount is very gratifying to the committee in charge as well as the management of the institution.

Those in charge were as follows: Tea table, Mrs. S. R. Smith, Mrs. Percy Warren Cawwell; ice cream, Mrs. J. Verne Wood, Mrs. Richard Hardy; flowers, Mrs. Wallace Walker, Mrs. William J. Shibley; decorations, Miss Susan Matthews; Mrs. Charles Batchelder; tickets, Mrs. Albert Jenkins, Mrs. Samuel Moses.

BRITISH SMASH GERMAN FRONT OVER 30 MILES

(By Associated Press)
Over the front of thirty miles from the region of Arras to Porcenne, Field Marshal Haig's forces have literally smashed the German front.

The southern portion of the famous Drocourt-Queant switch line which has been heralded as the most impregnable stronghold of the German defense line in the north, has given way before the violent onslaught of the British from the Scarpe river to Quenast, a distance of ten miles, and Monday night saw the Canadians and British forces hard after the retreating Germans, three miles east.

Thousands of prisoners and many guns and great numbers of machine guns have been taken from the Germans who at last accounts were fighting desperately to prevent further gains and the crossing of the canal du Nord.

With this victory seems ended the menace of the Hindenburg line in the north. Already thoroughly outflanked in the north and with the French well upon the southern base, military necessity will require that the Germans relinquish the Hindenburg line and retire their front from Flanders to the Rhine, in order to avert disaster at the hands of the Allies.

Already the road to Douai, Cambrai and St. Quentin are thoroughly infested by the British and French, while north of Soissons the French and Americans are in a commanding position to outflank Laon, the Chemin-des-Dames and Aisne line.

The position of the enemy as viewed from the war map is the most portentous that it has ever been.

Added to the German high command's trouble is the situation around Ypres where the Germans are being pressed back by the British and Americans and steady progress is being made in blunting out this sector which is one of long standing. The Americans who on Sunday captured Veermere, are now well into the region east of the town having overcome the strong opposition of the Germans.

A few more strikes of Haig's men in this region and Arras will be taken and then on to Lille.

The Americans reached the Baturo-Solons road by literally cutting their way through acres of barbed wire. On the southern end near Soissons the French have made important gains and have crossed the Du Nord canal. These gains will force the Germans to withdraw from the Vesle river.

HIT BY AUTO ON PORTSMOUTH BRIDGE

A young lad named Frank Ferrini was struck by an automobile on the Portsmouth bridge shortly after six o'clock Monday evening. He was taken to the hospital by the driver of the car that struck him, but the attending physician said that he was not injured and he will leave the hospital this morning.

POLICE COURT

There were seven drunks before Judge Currell in police court on Monday morning and with one exception they were all fined $10 and costs at $5.71, the exception being a fine of $5 and costs. William Price for reckless driving on Sunday evening was fined $5 and costs at $12.50.

SHATTUCK TAKES TWO GAMES FROM ATLANTICS

In the morning game it was so one-sided that it lost all interest, owing to the fact that O'Brien, who was in the box for the Atlantic, was hit all over the lot, in less than 18 hits being made by the Shattucks, including a home run, three base and other variety of wallop.

Tyler was on the firing line for the wooden shipbuilders and he pitched a fine game, allowing but five hits, well scattered. He got great support from the entire team. Conlon played a wonderful game at short and his one-handed stop of Gouville's drive in the fifth was sensational stuff. He also made four hits. Cashman played a fast game at third and Mitchell at second.

For the Atlantic's Parent played a good game at short and Swaggy had six putouts in center, but they could not hit Tyler and his coupled with O'Brien's slaughter, gave them but little chance. O'Brien was kept in, as Lehman was saved for the afternoon game and Pierrotti was loaned to the Cumberland shipyard team for the day.

Beaudoin got a home run and a two base hit while Conlon got four hits, including a three base hit, a two base and two singles. Conlon opened the game with a three base drive. In the sixth inning the Shattuck made six hits, including a home run and a two base hit.

WHEAT PRICE TO REMAIN THE SAME

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 2.—President Wilson today set the price for the 1919 wheat at $2.20, the same as this year. This will be for winter wheat, but the 1920 price he will set only after a report from a commission that has been asked to investigate.

AMERICAN STEAMER TORPEDOED

A British Port, Sept. 2.—The American steamer Omega has been torpedoed and sunk. Twenty-nine of the crew have been saved and 26 are reported missing. She was 3636 tons and was built at Belfast.

BANDS ARE NECESSARY FOR SOLDIERING

(By Associated Press)

In France, Sept. 1.—A recent general order of the American army increasing regimental bands to fifty pieces and giving all bandmasters the commission of lieutenant is understood to foreshadow a general reorganization of army bands and music. Like a good many things that military theory had either abolished or regarded as of secondary importance when this war began, music is to come into its own again as a primary essential of soldiering.

The Commander in Chief recently sought the advice of Dr. Walter Damrosch, American orchestra leader and composer, who is now in France, and as a result the army bands are to be brought up to date and perfected. At present, army musicians also act as stretcher bearers when action is on. It is proposed to relieve them of this duty, if the military authorities think it feasible, and compel them to practice constantly. The band leaders are to be examined as to their musical ability and an effort will be made to find the best instrumentalists in the service so that every regiment will have a highly trained band.

The army authorities have learned that music is a big part of war. The men want it and they appreciate good music, as is shown by the big turnout for the concerts. Good music is a tonic to the spirits, relieves from the front lines and varied troops straighten up, invigorates and outwardly when they are played into rest camps after action. It also has been found that to play the men out when they start for the front improves their morale.

Experiments are being made with a view to the introduction of the French bugle in our bands. The American bugle is keyed in C and does not lend itself well to a band, while the French army bugle, keyed in D flat and with a clear ringing tone, is excellent counterpoint in band music.

"SHIPYARD SLICKERS ARE TRAITORS"

(By Associated Press)

Newburgh, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Slickers in American shipyards who loaf individually and unions of shipbuilders which limit the output of ships were denounced by Theodore Roosevelt today as traitors to the country. Colonel Roosevelt delivered an address on the occasion of the unveiling from the Newburgh shipyards of the first of ten vessels, each of 9,000 tons dead weight, which are to be built here for the United States shipping board.

Colonel Roosevelt expressly exempted the employees of the local yard from his denunciation by saying that he understood that a warm spirit of helpfulness and co-operation had been developed here. Emphasizing the patriotic service rendered by shipbuilders the Colonel said:

"A slicker in our shipyards is as shameful a creature as a coward in the army in France, and a good worker in the shipyards stands honorably forward like a good soldier in the army. I have come here to Newburgh largely because my inquiries have convinced me that here there has been no organized limitation of output and practically no loafing. I am convinced that, generally speaking, there is a fine spirit of patriotism in shipbuilding labor in all parts of the country."

"Yet it has been alleged to me that in certain yards men have loafed individually and that in certain yards unions have actually limited the output so as to limit the number of ships driven in a day, or to limit the number of days that they work, or in other ways to prevent the development of our full strength and our utmost speed. Such men are traitors to the country."

"If I had my way I would take any such man and any man who aided or abetted him, put him in the army at once and send him across the water to do the hardest work in the most dangerous position; and I would not give him a rifle until he had learned the spirit of patriotism. Any man who lays off now or scamps his job is a traitor to his fellow Americans in France, a traitor to the men who need all the help we can give them. On the other hand, you whom I am convinced represent the enormous majority of the shipyard workers, you who are doing your utmost night and day, week in and week out, stand on the honor roll of American citizenship as second only to our troops in France, and I honor you. I am proud beyond measure that I am your fellow countryman."

"The army we have in France has been put there only because the British furnished us 60 percent of the tonnage needed to ferry them across. From now on American shipbuilders must bear this burden. Therefore any limitation of output in our shipyards is a crime against the country. Any union rule or workmen's agreement to limit the output in shipyards should be treated as a criminal act. This time perhaps men are not limiting their output. Shame and disgrace should be the portion of any man who here at home limits the output necessary to make the blood and labor of our soldiers at the front available. It is the patriotic duty of men in the less essential industries to leave those industries and to come to the shipyards and to place their technical skill at the service of their country in the way which will help to win the war. Shipbuilding is the neck of our industrial bottle so far as this war is concerned. Let every man fit to work in a shipyard go to the shipyard nearest to him to help out in our great need for skilled labor."

Colonel Roosevelt declared that no profiteering whatever should be allowed out of war industry. In asking labor to do its utmost, capital should be held by the government to the same standard.

CAPT. ROOSEVELT HOME WOUNDED

(By Associated Press)

An Atlantic Port, Sept. 2.—Captain Archie Roosevelt, son of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who was wounded in France at the battle of Cantigny with the American troops, arrived here today. Captain Roosevelt's left arm was shattered by a machine gun bullet as he was leading his men in a charge and it is partly paralyzed and he is suffering as he says from "nerves." It will be some weeks before he can return to France.

WALK ERECT AT EIGHTY

Because a man or woman is old does not mean that they must walk along bent over and supported with a cane. A man can be as vigorous and healthy at eighty as at twenty if he aids the organs of the body in performing their functions.

All diseases whether of a malignant or weak character, tend to tear away our vitality. You must counteract disease in its incipient stage if you would live a happy and useful old life.

AUTO OWNERS MAKE FINE RESPONSE

(The request of the United States Fuel Commission that auto owners stop riding on Sunday, especially pleasure riding was complied with more than was expected in this section of the country. As this city at this time of the year is the main highway to the White Mountains as well as down to York Beach, Salisbury Beach and other resorts, the riding was a pretty good test of the spirit, and it was found, in fact the lightest of the summer.

The order came at an especially hard time, the Sunday before Labor day being as a rule the one day of the year when the automobile riding reaches its very height. As a result of the request, it put forward the traffic to Saturday and that day was without exception the heaviest in traffic that has ever been experienced in this section. From the middle of the forenoon until well into the night it was a continuous stream of automobiles passing through here for the Mountains and down to Maine while the traffic west was also exceptionally heavy.

During the late afternoon on the York Road there were two continuous lines of automobiles, so that it was a procession with no chance for passing on the road. The local garages report that Saturday and Sunday night was the heaviest they have ever experienced.

Sunday early there was considerable traveling, those people who put up here "over night" continuing on their way, but soon after this was out of the way the travel began to lighten up and at times there was no travel at all. All business routes were out, that is from the hotels, etc., but there were a great many of the public auto owners who did not take their cars out of the garage.

At the Portsmouth Motor, many cars were sent out strictly for business calls and in each case the people were asked if it was necessary business. The only exception made was for the enlisted men. They were given cars to take them anywhere they wished to go such as to the beaches, but the cars did not remain with them, they were taken there and dropped.

All of the local garages and gasoline stations claim that the sale of gasoline for the day was practically nothing, the smallest of any Sunday of the year.

The general traffic to the beaches was very light, although there were many cars going at times, some clearly joy riding by the class of people who never heed a request of any kind, an order backed up with a penalty being the only thing they recognize. At Hampton Beach where ordinarily there are several hundred cars there were about twenty Sunday afternoon, the same is true of York Beach, Salisbury Beach where the traffic was reported some heavier, but not a quarter of the usual Sunday business.

The big hotels report that the order made a big difference in their Sunday business, especially for dinner. At the Rockingham hotel in this city it was very light and the same is true at the Kennebunk at Rye Beach, the Wentworth at New Castle and the Marshall House at York Harbor. These hotels however were practically booked to the limit for Sunday and Labor Day.

There was a noticeable observation of the request among the church-going people who as a rule ride in church and only those coming in from the surrounding benches used their cars. At the golf club there were very few machines, the members using carriages and even bicycles to get to their clubs.

A local driver who took a wedding party to Haverhill reports that the traffic in Massachusetts was heavy. But there were very few New Hampshire or Maine cars on the road.

Two cars seen going through the city had signs on them. One "We have got to get home today," and another "We are away from home and must be there slowly."

SUCCESSFUL SEASON FOR RUMMAGE

The Rummage Shop on State street has had a most successful season, yet when one thinks of the great and splendid spirit of this enterprise and feels that it should be even more successful with additional contributions. All who heard Mrs. Basil Clarke at the Portsmouth theatre on Thursday evening must feel a keener interest in the women and girls of northern France, who are undergoing such hardships and want to do something toward their aid. The Rummage Shop is also

League of this city, an organization in which local people should also take a deep interest.

An appeal is made for more contributions for the Rummage Shop. It seems that many people who have not given articles could look about their homes and find something, at least, to give. The donations may be left at the Rummage Shop on State street or at 251 Court street after Sept. 3. The committee in charge, which consists of Mrs. Barrett Wendell, Mrs. Harry Townin and Miss Frances Brooks, will be grateful also for contributions of well dried peach stones, owing to the urgent call from our government for stones of this fruit to obtain necessary carbon for gas masks, one hundred peach stones being needed to make one mask.

League of this city, an organization in which local people should also take a deep interest.

MUST OBEY LIGHTLESS NIGHT ORDER

The members of the Local Fuel Commission have received a letter from H. E. Clayton, the State Federal Fuel Administrator, that merchants in this city who do not observe the "lightless nights" order are clearly in violation of the regulations and if they continue, the situation will be reported to the United States Fuel Administrator, for action.

Last winter in some cases where the order was not complied with in other cities, the lights were cut off from the offending merchants until they complied.

SCHOOLS WILL BE OVERCROWDED

There has already been a big registration for the public schools and already it looks as though there would hardly be room enough to take care of the children. The schools open a week from today, Sept. 9, and with the great increase in population there necessarily is a big increase in the children. As soon as the school house at the Atlantic Heights is built it will relieve the situation some.

BIG CATCH OF SMALL MACKEREL

A big lot of small mackerel was brought into Newburyport Thursday. Nestor Thurlow landed nearly 10 barrels and a Klippy boat 500 fish, with more being turned in by other craft. They were caught in the vicinity of Boone Island and the Isles of Shoals.

Cut the Cost of Mileage

When you see a car puffing and panting up steep hills and over rough roads when it really ought to move along as easily and as steadily as a brook glides in its course—blame it on inferior gasoline.

The use of poor gasoline, whether for limousine, touring car, roadster or motor truck, is always extravagant waste.

In these days there is no excuse for such waste. Buy high mileage and full power. Buy SO-CO-NY Motor Gasoline.

SO-CO-NY is the surest economy. It means more miles per gallon. It is clean—powerful—quick-starting—reliable.

Look for the Red, White and Blue SO-CO-NY Sign. SO-CO-NY means saving wisely. It cuts the cost of mileage.

Portsmouth, N. H., Tuesday, September 3, 1918.

Courteous and Helpful.

There cannot fail to be a keen interest among service men, and among the public generally, in the movement started to induce automobilists when on the roads with empty seats in their cars to give free rides to soldiers and sailors who are traveling on foot in the direction in which the automobilists are going. This is a very considerate action and one in which the vast majority of automobilists will gladly take part.

Those who are ready to do this will be supplied with stickers to be attached to their cars to notify service men that they are welcome to ride as far as the autoist happens to be going their way. These stickers will be supplied to autoists desiring them in all parts of New England, and without doubt thousands will be immediately placed in use. The result will be that large numbers of soldiers and sailors traveling along the roads on foot will be given helpful "lifts," and that this help will be appreciated goes without saying. Already many autoists who have heard of the movement, but who have not yet received stickers, are inviting service men to ride in cases where they have room for them, and when the stickers are in general use few soldiers and sailors will be seen fooling it for any distance on the roads of New England.

Behind this movement are Chambers of Commerce, Rotary Clubs, moving picture houses and other bodies anxious to do all in their power for the comfort and encouragement of the men in the service, and great good is certain to result. Not only will acceptable aid be given to large numbers of young service men making their way from one place to another on foot, but the young fellows who are risking their all for the country will be made to realize more than ever that the people are behind them, heart and soul. In a certain sense this will be worth more than being carried a number of miles over a highway, for there are few rewards for self-sacrificing service that are more highly valued than genuine appreciation.

And these free rides will show appreciation in an unmistakable way. The beneficiaries will realize that they have a warm place in the minds and hearts of the people they are serving in the most dangerous of all callings, and by this simple courtesy they will be cheered and strengthened for their work at the front and on the seas.

It was a happy thought which gave birth to this movement, in which there is sure to be the fullest co-operation. Ninety-nine out of every one hundred autoists will be only too glad to do their share toward convincing the young service men that they are with them to the limit and will be with them to the end. And, knowing that this is the way the people feel, the young men will be nerved for the stern duties which lie ahead of them and will perform those duties in a manner that will more than repay all that can be done for them before they pass from these peaceful scenes into the areas of danger and death.

If the government replaces the fishing trawlers that have been destroyed by the German U-boats it will show that it understands the value and importance of the fishing business along the Atlantic coast. And it is given out that this is what the government is to do. Incidentally the enterprise will make busy times for the small shipyards along the coast, where the work will be done.

People who attended the recent field day at the State College in Durham are aware that a vast amount of important war work is being done there. The institution and the young men it is training are bubbling over with patriotism and enthusiasm and are doing work that is bound to count in the great struggle in which the country is engaged.

Present indications are that Governor Keyes will make a strong, and probably a winning, run for the Republican nomination for United States senator. If nominated his election will be certain and he will help to maintain in the upper house of Congress the high standard of service that has characterized New Hampshire in the past.

Good for Anson County, Me., which is reported to be fairly groaning under its burden of crops. Men who have been making a survey of the situation estimate that the yield of potatoes will exceed 20,000,000 bushels, and in addition there are splendid crops of wheat, oats and other farm produce. This is indeed cheering news from the far north.

The Germans claim that their cause is exalted, but it will be a good deal more so before the Yankees and the Allies get through with them. They will knock it sky high.

Henry Ford is treating the government very generously these days. But how long will it be before it is hinted, or openly charged, that it is all done for political effect?

Crew in Good Shape.

The Navy Department announces that information has been received from the Royal Swedish Legation at Constantinople, Turkey, that the officers and enlisted men of the U. S. S. Scorpion, interned there since April 11, 1917, are in good health, and that the food supply is wholesome and abundant.

The report states that the Scorpion has been moved to a new anchorage that is a healthier and more agreeable location than the former mooring; there are numerous books aboard the ship, the Constantinople newspapers are available, and the crew is allowed to play football on the drill grounds of the ministry of marine.

Officers and men are all said to be in excellent health, there being no cases of sickness on board at the time the report was made. Every week two officers and seven members of the enlisted personnel are allowed to visit the city under escort. In addition to this, several of the men have been permitted to go into the city to receive dental treatment. Steps are being taken, the report states, to get even more liberal permission for shore liberty. The men appear contented, their chief requests being for more news from home and more shore leave.

Going to England

Orders have been received from the secretary of the Navy detaching Lieut. Commander Alvin Hovey-King, U. S. That the people are still boiling the water.

That the Boston & Maine depot will be smaller than ever when the present changes are completed.

That the Dover Knights of Columbus are to keep open house for all enlisted men.

That the Gimlet Club claims to have over 20 members in the Army and Navy.

That everybody should save peach and plum stones, also all nut shells.

That the stones and shells can be deposited at the store of B. M. Tilton on Market street.

That the Labor Day parade was the first big event in years that was not headed by a platoon of police.

That the female operators in the parade and their decorations caught the eye of everybody on the line of march on Labor Day.

That a Boston man fearing he would be pointed out as a shocker for using his auto on Sunday carried the following inscription on his wind shield: "Using this car to deliver flowers for a funeral."

That others had the following on their cars: "Using this car for war work."

That the Brewery Workers, Longshoremen, Butchers and Drivers, Barbers and Printers were missing from the last Labor Day parade.

That some of these organizations have given up their charter since the previous Labor Day celebration.

CAN HARDLY BE SPARED

The call for limited service men takes from this city two young business men. Charles H. Walker, the head of the C. E. Walker Coal Co., and Volney Dwyer, manager of the Colonial Theatre and a director in the Allied Theatre company.

It is decidedly unfortunate at this time that Mr. Walker should be called for his knowledge of the coal business and his ability to get coal, makes him a far more valuable man to this city, with a hard winter for fuel coming and with the great increase in the population, than he possibly can be to the limited service branch of the government. Under the present call he is liable to be assigned to some clerical job or even guard duty about shipyards, etc., work that anybody could do. It was Mr. Walker who saved the day for this city last winter and while he will leave a competent assistant to care for the business, he will nevertheless be a considerable loss. He has never asked for a preferred classification, as he could do, but is very anxious to get into some branch of the service.

HINDENBURG UNCERTAIN ABOUT RESULTS

(By Associated Press)
Amsterdam, Sept. 1.—Eldred Marshall Von Hindenburg in a birthday message to the German Chancellor, says that Germany is fighting a bitter battle. Our enemies are attempting to enforce a decisive breaking through our line. They have not succeeded as yet, but a severe battle is still to be fought. It will be won if the fatherland is behind the troops.

For the Hingham postoffice previously 100 special delivery letters a month was good business. Now 1200 are handled in the same time, due to the increased number of men at Camp Hingham and the marine barracks.

"FORDS"

Passenger Car Situation

Present conditions seem to bear out the news reports that after January 1 all automobile manufacturers must have their plants producing 100 per cent war work. The best we can hope for is that they may be allowed to produce trucks and chassis to be used for business purposes. The number of cars we will receive by the end of this year is very limited and therefore we advise you to buy your Ford today. After our present stock is exhausted there will be another advance in price of $20 for transportation.

We have the following cars in stock.

AMERICANS CAPTURE JUVIGNY

(By Associated Press)
With the American Army in France, Sept. 1.—The American troops have driven beyond Juvigny last night and today and have advanced two miles and captured 600 prisoners with guns and supplies.

Juvigny which the Germans tried so desperately to retain is now in the hands of the Americans. The Americans are now consolidating the position and the immediate vicinity. Their artillery dominates the country to the east for many miles and they threaten Neuville. In the capture of the village the Germans were outflanked and outmaneuvered by the Americans. The enemy machine guns proved a terrible obstacle to the capture of the town, but they were finally overcome. After the capture of the village the Germans dropped a high explosive shell into the midst of 187 German prisoners who had been moved to the rear, killing five and terribly wounding many others.

The objective of the Pershing men was obtained. The Germans were trapped in the town, so quick did the Americans move that they encircled the town. German machine guns were pointed to the west and north-west and the Americans came in from the rear. The mopping up of the town resulted in the capture of 225 prisoners. The German dead have not been counted but it is very great.

WELDING WILL REPAIR IT

What often appears to be a serious, ruinous crack or break in a cylinder, casting or piece of machinery, is but a simple piece of repair work to our Expert Welders. Our welding works wonders in repairing broken metal parts—parts that would have to be "scrapped" before the process was invented. Remember, our welding generally makes the broken part stronger than it ever was. (Inquiries invited.)

SAILOR OR SOLDIER GET ABOARD

"Soldier or Sailor Going My Way Get In," is the rallying cry of a white platoon with shield in the center seen on numerous Massachusetts automobiles passing through this city. Another placard seen often on Massachusetts cars is of white with a large red heart in the center. These are meant to show that an enlisted man who enlists in the army or the navy will cheerfully be given a lift if going his way. This idea shows a fine patriotic spirit and this invitation placard on automobiles is sure to be more effective in the near future.

THIS IS THE LABORERS WAR

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Sept. 1.—All Americans are addressed as fellow enlisted men by the President in a special Labor Day message given out at the White House this evening. He calls upon the labor to help win the war, "the war of all wars," that labor should support with all its concentrated energy. Labor Day this year, he declared had a special significance. The laborer is as much needed in this war as the soldier. It is his war. The soldier is his champion and representative. To fail to win the war is to imperil everything that Labor has striven for since the birth of freedom.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very small cost. Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Uniforms.

One of the features of the Labor Day parade was the first appearance of the Atlantic Corporation band in uniform. This company of musicians under Director Fowler came in for a great deal of admiration and applause all along the line of march. The natty uniforms of khaki and the fine marching of the band was decidedly noticeable. Everybody remarked "That's some band," and they all hit it correct. It goes without saying that it is the crack band of this section and the director and the Corporation have every reason to feel proud of such an organization developed in a short period of time.

Every selection played during the march was up to date and inspiring. Many of band are men of much musical ability and Portsmouth as well as the Corporation cannot help taking pride in this latest musical organization. The Atlantic band and every man in it is a credit to the musical world.

PEACH STONE BARRELL AT THE TILTON STORE

Save All You Can to Help
Win the War.

The saving of peach stones will help win the war and the government is taking all that it can get for making charcoal for use in gas mask making. To help the collection B. M. Tilton, the Market street fruit dealer, will establish a depository for the stones at the place of business and everybody is urged to bring all they can save to his store and drop them in a barrel to be used for the collection. When the barrel is filled Mr. Tilton will place another receptacle for more stones and forward them to the government as fast as possible to do so.

$500 STOLEN AT LODGING HOUSE IN NORTH END

Unknown Lodger Exchanges
Trousers With Man in Next Room.

Tony Cinarali, painter, who came here from Providence a few weeks ago is just $500 shy in his financial standing today than he was on Saturday last.

Tony who is working at one of the shipyards has been a lodger at the house of Frank Letterio, 276 Market street for about three weeks. On Saturday night he retired early leaving this amount of money in his trousers which were on the foot of his bed. When awakened on Sunday morning his trousers had disappeared and the $500 went with them.

Cinarali and the whole house got busy and consultations were numerous. The robbery was finally solved but the $500 and the boarder's breeches were still missing.

About 11 Saturday night another roomer, a young man whose name was not learned was seen to leave the house saying that he was going out to get the rest of his change of $5, which he gave to the proprietor of some lunch room for a feed.

It appears that this man at the time had entered the room of Cinarali and exchanged trousers, leaving his own empty jeans behind. He walked away quietly with the money and not even a good description is at hand.

Cinarali was intending with another man to purchase a place of business in the North End and the stolen money was to go as his share of the deal.

FAREWELL TO MISS INGALLS

Members of the Girls' Patriotic League gathered in the garden of the club house on Middle street on Sunday afternoon from 4:30 to 6 o'clock to extend greetings to Miss Mary Ingalls, director of the organization who had concluded her duties.

Mrs. Barrett Wendell, president of the board of directors, was present and gave an informal talk, which was heard with interest and pleasure by all. An incident of the afternoon was the presentation to Miss Ingalls of twenty-five dollars in gold the gift being given by the League and presented by Miss Georgine Moses, president of the organization. Miss Ingalls responded graciously, expressing her thanks and genuine surprise. Light refreshments were served and all departed expressing best wishes to Miss Ingalls for her future happiness.

Miss Ingalls left Monday for Swampscott, Mass., to visit her sister. The marriage of Miss Ingalls and Dr. I. E. Stone of Quincy, Mass., will occur in the near future.

ENTERTAINED MEN AT THE Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY

Rev. Percy Warren Caswell, pastor of the Court Street Christian church, gave an able address at the meeting for enlisted men on Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. building on Congress street. He chose as his subject "The Call to Men," and spoke in an informal manner illustrating his talk by several stories and he was heard with the close attention of the audience.

In the absence of District Secretary Billy Roy, Mr. Caswell took charge of the meeting which opened with the usual praise service. Martin Damm of the Naval Band pleasantly rendered three lute solos. Mrs. William Randall presided at the piano at the service.

Following the meeting the fellowship lunch was served by the Woman's Auxiliary.

LIGHT VOTE EXPECTED IN THE PRIMARIES

Contests in Three Wards and Both Parties Writing in Names on Ballots.

The state primary election today is not making much of a stir as far as this city is concerned and it is doubtful if the total vote reaches 500. Both parties are marking on the tickets in some of the wards where the candidates failed to file and a contest is on in wards 2, 3 and 5. In ward two the republicans have four candidates to pick three from, and the democrats in ward 3 have three candidates to make the nomination of two.

Arthur F. Howard, William E. Hodgdon, Ralph C. Gray and Charles Quinn are the republican primary candidates.

About 200 out of 1000 voters had voted at noon. In this ward the democrats are marking in on the ballot all candidates with the exception of S. W. Emery who had filed in the proper time.

William Casey, Joseph D. Sullivan and William Sherburne, democrats, are in a three cornered fight for representatives. The republicans in this ward are writing in the candidates for the general count.

William H. Dunn and Charles H. Stewart are after the republican nomination for the legislature and though not many votes are expected to be cast, the contest is quite lively.

Patrick E. Kane is the democratic nominee in this ward for representative with no opposition.

The republicans in ward one are marking in the name of former Alderman Ellish B. Newman for representative as only one filing that of Geo. H. Sanderson, was made.

The democrats have as representatives candidates Lewis B. Soule and Harry Dowdell. The democrats are also writing the representative candidate in ward four.

It was necessary for the democrats to write in the following county candidates in all wards.

For Sheriff, Fred E. Hasly, Portsmouth.

For County Solicitor, Samuel W. Emery, Portsmouth.

For County Commissioners, Myron D. Richardson, Derry; Lewis A. Bragdon, Epping; George W. McCarthy, Portsmouth.

For Register of Deeds, Albert F. Priest, Newmarket.

For Register of Probate, Albert S. Langley, Exeter.

For Treasurer, Frank N. Young, Derry.

Cot. John Pender, E. Percy Stoddard and Oliver L. Frisbee make up the republican trio seeking the nomination for state senator in the 24th district. The democratic nominee is Oliver B. Marvin of New Castle with no opposition.

JUST DAVID

By ELEANOR H. PORTER

Author of "Pollyanna"

Ten year old David and his father (a famous violinist) lived on a mountain, with the woods, the wild things and their two violins. Then a change came and David was left to the care of gruff farmer folk in whom the warmth of kindness was buried deep. But "Just David" brought music and sunshine into many lives and played a part in a very pretty romance.
